VOLUME CVI.---NO 129. ALEXANDRIA, VA., THURSDAY EVENING JUNE 1, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

"Shut your eyes, open your mouth and see what luck will bring you."

Many a woman is weak and sick, nervous and discouraged. She suffers from headache, backache and other ills. She wants to be well, but all she does is to shut her eyes and open her mouth for medicine and trust to luck for results. She "doctors" month after month; often year after year, in this same blind, hap-hazard fashion, and receives no permanent benefit.

Women take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription with their eyes open to the fact that it cures womanly ills. It cures irregularity, It dries debilitating drains. It heals inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness. There is no trusting to luck by those who use "Favorite Prescription."

"In the year 1903 my health was poor," writes Mrs. J. Hack, of 242 Broadway, Buffalo, N. Y. "I suffered from falling of womb, a disagreeable discharge, painful monthly periods, headache, backache and pains in the limbs. Every month was confined to bed for two or three days. Was weak, nervous and hysterical; life was a burden to myself and I made every one in the family unhappy because I was so irritable. My husband got me four bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, and before I had taken the first bottle I was feeling some relief. The medicine made me well and strong, free from nervousness, aches and pain, and I felt like a new woman. Before I used the 'Favorite Prescription' I had been taking another physician's medicine for nearly three months, but had received no benefit. Your medicine is certainly the best in the world."

A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. Don't let a selfish seller over-persuade you to accept a substitute for these Original Little Liver Pills, first put up by old Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated but never equaled.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Erroneously Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing the dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her life long, accompanied by falling hair, too. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, leaves the hair free to grow as healthy Nature intended. Destroy the cause you remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

WEAK HEARTS

are caused by Indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of Indigestion, you have no doubt had shortness of breath, rapid heart beats, heartburn or palpitation of the heart.

Indigestion causes the stomach to expand—swell, and puff up against the heart. This crowds the heart and interferes with its action, and in the course of time the heart becomes diseased.

Kodol

digests what you eat, takes the strain off of the heart, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Cures Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Sour Stomach, Inflammation of the mucous membranes lining the Stomach and Digestive Tract, Nervous Dyspepsia and Catarrh of the Stomach.

After eating, my food would distress me by making my heart palpitate and I would become very weak. Finally I got a bottle of Kodol and it gave me immediate relief. After using a few bottles I am cured.
MRS. LORING NICHOLS, Penn Yan, N. Y.

I had stomach trouble and was in a bad state as I had heart trouble with it. I took Kodol Dyspepsia Cure for about four months and it cured me.

STORY OF THE BATTLE.

The London Telegraph's correspondent at Moji says:

"The combined Russian squadrons arrived in Japanese waters through the Bashee straits. The plan of Admiral Rojestvensky was to divide the Japanese strength at the outset, and his fast cruisers were sent ahead to scout the Straits of Tsushima, The main Russian fleet changed its course as if to return to Beshee straits, but at 5 o'clock in the morning of May 27 it steered through the Straits of Korea in a southeasterly direction within the waters of Iki Island.

"At this time the combined Japanese fleet had left its prearranged base, and a squadron was detached to press the Russians toward Iki Island. The Russians went full steam ahead, every ship steaming at its maximum practicable speed, affording a most impressive and majestic sight. Meanwhile, the Japanese were lurking in the neighborhood. The Russians passed through the strong current running past Iki Island and proceeded on a due northerly course. The Japanese were ready, and their auxiliary fleet to the north headed off the enemy.

"Now the great battle began. Admiral Togo's vessels maneuvered with perfect precision, and soon the Russians were enfiladed, not in the ordinary sense, but in front and on both flanks. The scene which the correspondent witnessed was superbly terrible. The guns of nearly fifty warships were being fired, and now and again a crash was heard as the reports coincided. For a time the belligerents gave shot for shot, and through the conflict the fleets were on the move, but the Russians deviated from their original course.

"With the hostile squadron on each side and another ahead Rojestvensky was practically defeated within a few hours. There was no possible direction for him to turn. He had fallen into the trap which had been awaiting him ever since he left Madagascar. Hesitation was displayed in the tactics of his fleet, and this proved a forerunner of utter confusion.

"The Japanese knew instantly the enemy was beaten and the concentrated fire now became absolutely infernal. Every gun was trained. The Russians were caught in a cul de sac. Long lines of smoke like sea clouds floated across the water, interspersed with flashes of artillery. At 2:10 p. m. the bombardment reached its zenith.

"Between 3 and 5 in the afternoon a Russian cruiser of the Admiral Nakhimoff class and the converted cruiser Kamtchatka foundered. Previously their upper work had been shattered into splinters of wood, iron and steel. Then the Russian fleet broke into utterdisorder. The vessels no longer preserved their formation. They went along in a zigzag course, some pointed east and others west.

"At that moment it became evident that Rojestvensky was completely defeated. The Japanese, with judgment which in supreme moments amounts to inspiration, now advanced to closer quarters. The Russian ships under fire were rendered all the more terribly helpless by the shortened range at which the Japanese were firing, and no longer existed as a fleet. The detached squadrons coordinated in no direction and were utterly demoralized. Gradually they were pressed toward their enemy's coast of the Nagota province.

"The fighting continued until sunset. The wind had now gone down, and it was a glorious night. The Korean sea, usually so rough, was now smooth and transparent, in the blue darkness of the night. The ships stood out something more than specters, something less than fearful citadels, When darkness set in the Russians were still edging toward the north, but the Japanese, in horizontal lines, lay across the enemy's bows, an effective barrier linked with guns.

"At 8 p. m. the Japanese destroyers and torpedo boats went forward like a great cloud of locusts. The sea was swept by the pale tracks of innumerable searchlights. The work of the day was over and the work of the night had begun; the large Japanese warships, which had so well found the range of the enemy in light of day, covered the attack. Beneath the shells from the great cannon the tiny vessels darted forth to sting and sink the enemy. There were scores and scores of them. Rojestvensky never dreamed that Japan had such a flotilla.

"Under the fire of the enemy, all of whose guns were trained upon them, the little craft dashed on. One moment a shot would strike the water, but not before a boat had darted toward the sides of the heavy warships.

"The night's work resulted in the sinking of the Emperor Alexander III, the Oslybia, the Navarin, and three gunboats. No rest was allowed the enemy. When Sunday dawned the Japanese fleet came to still closer range, pressing the Russians to the northwest coast of Nagata. All day long the battle raged with unabated fierceness, but the Russians had no strategical position in which to offer effective resistance."

The London Daily Mail's Toiko correspondent says that the captain of the Russian cruiser Admiral Nakhimoff, who is now a prisoner, relates the following story of the battle between the Japanese and Russian fleets:

"We first saw the Japanese at 6 o'clock on the morning of May 27, when suddenly and unexpectedly we encountered the enemy's fleet, as we were moving to the east of Tsu island. They steamed toward us and opened fire. Only ninety minutes after the firing began a sudden shock was felt under the Admiral Nakhimoff, and she began to sink with great rapidity. My belief is that she either struck a mine or a torpedo. My crew numbered 600 men, a majority of whom went down in the ship, as there was no time to get the men on deck. Myself and a number of survivors, aided by lifebelts, swam to a small launch, and about 10 o'clock in the morning we went abroad a fisher boat. All of the officers were sent to Shimonoseki. In the engagement fought off Liancourt Rocks the Russian battleships were surrounded by Japanese ships, which circled about them, pouring in a terrible fire and they almost immediately fell into hopeless confusion. Seeing their plight, Vice Admiral Togo signaled from the battleship Miskasa a demand to know whether the Russians were ready to surrender. Our ships complied with the demand."

Other accounts of the battle describe the roar of the cannonade so terrible that houses were shaken at Yamaguchi, twenty-eight miles distant, and the people supposed it was an earthquake.

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W. Hoffman, of Hooper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle, with stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won and by the use of Electric Bitters. In unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

THURSDAY EVENING, JUNE 1, 1905.

THE UNCERTAIN conditions existing at the present day were in evidence again in Paris last night, when an attempt was made to kill King Alfonso of Spain. The bomb was the agent used, but fortunately the purpose of the man who hurled it failed. It is a sad condition of affairs when regicides dog the steps of those who wear the crowns. Assassins figure throughout history. Among those who have met death by this class Philip of Macedon, father of Alexander the Great (336 B. C.), and Julius Cæsar (44 B. C.) are notable. Albert I, Emperor of Germany, met death by the assassin's dagger, and the poet King James of Scotland met a similar fate. Among those who have lost their lives by assassination within the last hundred years are Paul, Czar of Russia, 1801; Charles III, Duke of Parma, 1854; Abraham Lincoln, 1865; Michael, Prince of Servia, 1868; Marshal Prim, 1870; Georges Darboy, Archbishop of Paris, by the Communionists, 1871; Earl of Mayo, Governor General of India, 1872; Alexander II, Czar of Russia, 1881; President James A. Garfield, at Washington, 1881; Lord Frederick Cavendish and T. H. Burke, at Phœnix Park, Dublin, 1882; President Carnot of France, at Lyons, 1894; Stefan Stambuloff, at Sofia, Bulgaria, 1895; Empress Elizabeth of Austria, at Geneva, Switzerland, by an anarchist, 1898; King Humbert I of Italy, at Monza, by an anarchist named Bresci, 1900; President William McKinley at Buffalo, by Czolgosz, an anarchist, 1901, and King Alexander and Queen Draga of Servia, 1903.

A PACIFIC mail steamer arrived at San Francisco yesterday from Panama. The hospital surgeon of the port boarded the steamer and upon examining some of the passengers who had been tormented by fleas immediately concluded that they were suffering from smallpox. Later three medical men held a consultation and caused much relief to the victims of the fleas by giving a correct diagnosis of their cases. Smallpox scares are common. We have them in Alexandria occasionally. Several years ago a child was taken sick and its trouble pronounced smallpox. A yellow flag was placed upon the house by the authorities. The father became indignant, tore down the emblem of infection and hoisted a United States flag. The child soon recovered its health and no similar cases of sickness occurred in the neighborhood.

ACCORDING to dispatches from Berlin, Russia will make no movement toward stopping the war with Japan. This is doubtless the course Germany desires her neighbor to take, as the weakening of the Muscovite means much to most continental kingdoms. Russia is in a deplorable condition. Her navy is practically gone, lukewarmness is apparent in her Manchurian army, while thousands of soldiers are kept busy keeping down internal troubles. The murmurings grow louder daily, while assassins lurk in shadows ready to hurl bombs at all in authority.

AN EFFORT is being made by the business men of Norfolk to secure lower rates for insurance in that city and it would not be out of place for a similar effort to be made in Alexandria. The rates have been increased from time to time until they have become onerous and out of all proportion to the losses sustained by the various insurance companies doing business in this city. There is a general complaint among all classes of citizens of the high insurance rates that now prevail.

SEVERAL preachers in Connecticut have formed a farming class, and in the last week have begun to till the soil. Ministers of nearly all evangelical denominations have entered the organization. Mrs. C. A. Webster, an English settlement worker, is at the head of the movement.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., June 1.

A protracted conference this morning between Attorney-General Moody and Secretary of the Navy Paul Morton led to the belief that the rate campaign by the legal department of the government is shortly to be carried to a climax. In view of the fact that Mr. Morton first discussed his retirement from the Cabinet he named next autumn as the time, political wiseacres believe his change of mind and yesterday's announcement that he will leave the Navy Department July 1st are significant in connection with rate prosecutions. While a number of roads are believed to be under practical surveillance by the Attorney-General, the most attention is being directed to the Atcheson, Topeka and Santa Fe, of which Mr. Morton was formerly the vice-president.

A deficit of $15,000,000 in the revenues of the postal service is promised by the end of the fiscal year. This will be the largest ever known, and, coming as a time when the other expenses of the government are running far ahead of the receipts, the matter is causing some anxiety. The discrepancy between the cost of the postal service and its earnings is due, according to the Postmaster General, to the increased cost of rural free delivery. The appropriation for the year just closing was $22,000,000, $10,000,000 greater than for the preceding year.

Major John M. Carson, the dean of the corps of Washington correspondents, this morning assumed the duties of Commissioner of the Bureau of Manufacturers, Department of Commerce and Labor, to which office he was appointed by the President a few days ago.

The cornerstone of the Lane-Johnson Memorial Building of the choir school for boys of the Washington Cathedral will be laid this evening at 4:30 o'clock. The principal address will be by Rev. Dr. Hodges, who was the first to establish in Baltimore a choir school in connection with an Episcopal parish school. The choir school in Washington is the first to be established in connection with any cathedral in this country. The project was made possible by a bequest of $300,000 made by Mrs. Harriet Lane Johnson, for whom the building is to be named.

While the inquiry into the Loomis-Bowen controversy has not yet been entirely concluded, final decision being reserved until after the arrival and examination of Minister Russell, who is on his way from Bogota, it can be announced with authority that Mr. Bowen has entirely failed to make out a case against Mr. Loomis. The result will without much doubt be the retirement of Mr. Bowen from the diplomatic service.

It is officially announced today that the President's Southern trip will begin October 17, and that will occupy 12 days. The extra session of Congress will therefore not be called for October 16, as has been expected. The first stop will be at Richmond, Va. Raleigh will be the principal stop in North Carolina. Other stops will be made at Atlanta, Jacksonville, Birmingham, Mobile, Tuscogee, New Orleans and Little Rock.

It is likely that President Diaz, of Mexico, will make a foreign tour and visit the United States during present term of office, according to Gen. Powell Caton, former U. S. Ambassador to Mexico, who is now in this city winding up his affairs.

George E. Lorenz, whose testimony yesterday in the W. G. Crawford's trial showed that he had turned State's evidence, this morning resumed the stand. When questioned by Attorney Holmes Conrad as to the part taken by him (Lorenz) in the Crawford contract with the government the witness stated that he was supposed to furnish straps, but had never done so. "Crawford manufactured the straps just as he did any other constituent part of the contract. Machen and I, however, paid for the straps out of our share of the proceeds." Lorenz further stated that when the contracts were signed and even during the congressional investigation of Machen's affairs he was under the impression that he was engaged in a perfectly lawful business enterprise.

Surrounded by members of the Cabinet, the diplomatic corps, the justices of the United States Supreme Court, members of Congress, other high officials and distinguished men, President Roosevelt in the White House, at four o'clock this afternoon will touch a golden key that will send the signal to Porland, Oregon, for the opening of the Lewis & Clark Centennial Exposition. At the same moment a sentinel stationed on the roof of the White House will drop a flag as the signal for the firing of a presidential salute in honor of the magnificient enterprise thus inaugurated. After the President's finger shall have released the key an expert telegrapher will send a message of congratulation to H. W. Goode, president of the Portland Exposition Company, and will receive his reply.

The correspondance, containing Secretary of the Navy Morton's letter of resignation and the President's acceptance of same was given out at the White House today. The Secretary gives flattering business opportunities as the reason for his resignation. The President in accepting the resignation thanks Mr. Morton for heeding his wishes and remaining in his cabinet so long. The President also expresses his regret as well as that of others interested at the resignation.

The Comptroller of the Currency has made a call upon the national banks for a statement of their condition at the close of business Monday, May 29.

Japan and the Philippines.

The Brussels correspondent of the Frankfurter Zeitung, in an interview with Mr. Kato, the Japanese minister t Belgium, called his attention to American dispatches alleging that there was much concern in the United States lest Japan would undertake the seizure of the Philippine Islands. The Minister replied that there was not the slightest justification for such a view.

"I share the view of my government and of every Japanese," said Minister Kato, "in asserting that we desire no better neighbor in the Philippines than the United States. Moreover, our trade has received the greatest advantage from the American occupation of the Philippines. We esteem the American people highly for their liberalism and activity, and have always maintained the best relations with them. Japan will never pursue a policy of expansion, and they are fantastic politicians who attribute to us such ends. We began the war with Russia in self-defense. What we need is a permanent peace, which will give us the possibility of developing within our own borders."

Mr. Kato expressed his personal belief that Russia will continue the war, and that the next stage of Japan's operations will be at Vladivostok. Japanese generals and admirals, he added, will have more to say in fixing peace conditions than will the diplomatists.

The Delegates Withdrew.

St. Petersburg, June 1.—The opening of the second sitting of the labor commission, headed by M. Kokovtzoff, the finance minister, which occurred yesterday, was marked by the withdrawal of the industrial representatives. When the commission met the leaders of the laboriug men announced that in view of the great national calamity which has fallen upon the country, they did not feel in the proper state of mind to calmly discuss current events in the empire. They also said that the alarming situation which exists in the various provinces required their presence at home, In spite of the protests and appeals of the President, the delegates withdrew.

The Market.

Georgetown, June 1.—Wheat 95a105.

News of the Day.

The Lewis and Clark Centennial Exposition was opened by Vice-President Fairbanks today.

There was an advance of nine cents a bushel in May corn in the Chicago market yesterday.

Some thief recently stole jewels valued at $30,000 from the apartments of the Duchess of Westminister, in Grosvenor House.

At Marshall, Mo., yesterday, Charles G. Patterson, a former editor, shot and fatally wounded E. D. Martin, a former State Senator.

In spite of his disapproval of many acts of the McKinley administration, he voted the republican ticket, because he believed the triumph of Mr. Bryan would be a menace to American institutions.

According to statistics gathered by the Southern Cotton Association, there is a decrease of 18.43 per cent. in the cotton acreage as compared with that of last year. The crop outlook is bad.

Agents of the Armour Packing Company, of Chicago, are paying the farmers near Norfolk and in the North Carolina district for strawberries which spoiled at the railway stations for lack of transportation.

The annual meeting and election of the Maryland Civil Service Reform Association was held in Baltimore last night, and Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte, named by the President yesterday as Secretary of the Navy to succeed, in the near future, Secretary Paul Morton, was re-elected president.

During the trial in Washington yesterday of W. G. Crawford, accused of complicity with A. W. Machen in the postal frauds, George F. Lorenz, already under sentence for two years, turned state's evidence and declared that he, Machen and Crawford formed a combination to secure contracts for letter-carriers' satchels, the profits to be divided among themselves.

King Victor Emmanuel yesterday received in private audience Senator A. O. Bacon, of Georgia with whom he conversed most cordially, showing perfect knowledge of American affairs. The King said a President of the United States enjoys more power than a King of Italy. Referring to emigration, Senator Bacon said Italians were welcomed in the Southern agricultural States.

Because Rev. John Gordon, president of Howard University, Washington, and a white man, has raised the race question at the negro college by declining to associate on a social equality plane with the student body and faculty, and has sought to emphasize the importance of manual training, a committee of alumni, backed by the entire undergraduate body, yesterday preferred charges against him and petitioned the board of trustees for his immediate removal.

Maj George A. Armes, United States army, retired, was sued in the District of Columbia Supreme Court yesterday by Mrs. Mary Wine Armes, his bride of about three months, who seeks to have the court order a sale of the equitable interests in his country place, "Fairfield," at Connecticut avenue and Grant Road, Washington. Mrs Armes separated from Maj. Armes about a week ago, and is now residing with her father in Virginia. According to her petition, certain irreconcilable differences have arisen between them.

The Czar yesterday summoned the members of the imperial family to a conference and also called Admiral Alexieff and the members of the Cabinet to an extraordinary council. The questions discussed were the opening of negotiations for peace and the summoning of a representative assembly. All of the members of the Cabinet except the ministers of war and marine are said to be in favor of peace. The impression produced everywhere by the completeness of the Russian disaster in Korea strait is that it will serve to stimulate the desire for peace on the part of the vanquished.

A conflict between strikers and Cossacks occurred at Lodz, Russian Poland, yesterday. The soldiers were stoned by a mob of men, who were trying to bring out some weavers who were at work, whereupon the troops fired, killing two men and wounding six. A condition almost approaching anarchy exists at Lodz. The strikers appear to have supreme control. They are forcing the manufacturers to close their mills, and the manufacturers are urging the government to proclaim martial law. In one instance strikers forcibly ejected a military guard from a mill. A regiment of cavalry has arrived.

At least five men were killed and two seriously injured by the caving in of the Gunnison reclamation mine tunnel at Montrose, Ohio, yesterday. C. Taylor and Fred Gross were pinned under heavy timbers and terribly injured. They would have been drowned but for the efforts of their entombed companions, who improvised a dam to hold back the water which poured into the tunnel for a time. Twenty-one men were rescued uninjured, but exhausted. They were hoisted with ropes through a shaft which had been sunk sixty feet in less than twenty-four hours. The rescuers worked in three minutes relays until the tunnel was reached.

A dispatch from Greensboro, N. C., says that great damage was done to wheat in that section by a severe wind and hail storm yesterday afternoon. Many large trees in the city were uprooted, and telegraph and telephone wires tangled. Lightning struck a barn in which were three horses, seriously injuring them. A negro church was completely wrecked, several buildings at the fair grounds damaged and one of the largest oaks in the city, in the yard of C. Mebane, was split from top to bottom by lightning. A negro cabin in the suburbs was overturned, the family barely escaping death. Passengers on trains coming in through the storm were completely drenched with water blown through the car windows.

That there was a double drowning in Central Park, New York, late Tuesday night became known yesterday when the body of the second victim, Miss Josephine Tauber, was found in the water by men who had been dragging the bottom of the lake all night. The body of Miss Tauber's young cousin, Alfred Bergman, was recovered that night. There was no suspicion at that time that another life had been lost, but when Miss Tauber's father was called to identify the body he became greatly alarmed. "Where is my daughter," he cried. "She was with Alfred, and she, too, must have been drowned." His fears were verified yesterday when the young woman's body was found.

Laughton Diuginda, 22 years old, a student, committed suicide yesterday in the home of his parents, at Lynchburg, by shooting himself in the head. Last winter he tried to take a two-year course in chemistry in a Philadelphia college in one year, but broke down and had to come home. Since then he had been growing worse mentally.

MR. MONTAGUE AS RAILROAD LAWYER.

The Index-Appeal has never been of those that condemned as contrary to sound public policy, or as in any way incompatible with the public service, or as inconsistent with the highest duties of citizenship, an attorneyship for a railroad or other corporation merely for the transaction of its legal business and the protection of the legal interests. Railroads and other corporations have rights under the law just as individuals and private concerns have, and lawyers are just as necessary to them as are other officials and employees. That is what lawyers are for, and no more odium attaches to this class of professionals service than to any other, though there has, from time to time, been a senseless clamor against corporation lawyers as enemies of popular rights and as disqualified to serve the people in executive, legislative and judicial positions.

The friends of Mr. Montague have found a favorite mode of attack on Senator Martin in the charge that he was a corporation lawyer and they have worked upon the prejudices of the people to create the impression that he is still in the interests and, under the influence and control of the corporations, to the detriment of the public welfare. No mode of political attack, whether by innuendo or open charge, could be more unworthy and false. Prior to Senator Martin's election to the United States Senate he was for a number of years counsel for the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad company in four counties, viz.; Albemarle, Buckingham, Fluvanna and Goochland, at a salary of $1,000 per annum. He was only employed to look after the legal business of the road in that territory, and had nothing whatever to do with matters pretaining to legislation, or anything else. During that time he held no office that imposed public duties upon him inconsistent with his relations to the railroad. So far from his being the creature of the railroad in his first candidacy for the United States senatorship, it is a fact that every railroad president in Virginia opposed him then, and, so far as we can learn, they are opposing him now. Mr. Ingalls, the president of the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad, was exceedingly active against him in his candidacy, and went so far as to publish a card in a Richmond paper advocating the election of General Lee. When Mr. Martin was elected United States Senator he severed his connection with the Chesapeake & Ohio railroad company, and has had no relations with that corporation since, except to bring suits against it. So much for Mr. Martin as a corporation lawyer.

Now let us enquire how Mr. Montague stands in this respect. For a number of years he was attorney for the Southern Railway Dompany for the city of Danville and the county of Pittsylvania. That was proper enough while he held no public office incompatible with that position. But on July 1, 1903, he entered upon the discharge of his duties as District Attorney of the United States for the western district of Virginia. Did he follow Mr. Martin's example and resign his attorneyship of the railroad company? Not much! On the contrary, he continued his relations with the Southern Railway after it had become his duty as a federal official to prosecute roads for all criminal violations of the Interstate Commerce and other federal laws, drawing a salary of $5,000 and mileage from the government and a salary and free passes from the railroad. These facts were conspicuously printed in the Danville Register, Mr. Montague's home paper, on February 10, 1905. In all this time they have not been denied, and we do not believe that they will be denied. This state of things went on for more than four years, or until August 12, 1897, when Mr. Montague was nominated by the democratic convention, at Roanoke, for Attorney-General of Virginia. The load was too heavy to go before the people with, and it was then—on the very day of his nomination, we believe—that Mr. Montague did what he should have done more than four years before.

Here is the deadly parallel of the two men's records! The facts are matters of record that are easy of access, and may be refuted if not accurately stated here. We challenge refutation of them.

On a comparison of these records the fair and impartial voters of Virginia can decide for themselves which candidate has the more creditable record—the one that resigned as a corporation attorney when his public duties became incompatible with that position, or the one that held on in defiance of such incompatibility.

Anyhow, let us have fair play!

Today's Telegraphic News

The Recent Battle.

Tokio, June 1.—Admiral Togo the hero of the naval battle of the Sea of Japan, as the Japanese commander has designated the great engagement recently fought, and the Japanese navy have both been congratulated upon their recent success by the Mikado in rescripts issued today.

London, June 1.—Baron Hayashi, the Japanese Ambassador here, today received from Tokio a copy of the seventh report made by Amiral Togo to his government, in regard to the recent fighting. This report shows that the total losses of the Japanese number about 300. The three torpedo boats Nos. 34, 35, and 69, which were sunk, were all the war vessels lost by Japan. The admiral says that it will be several days before a detailed report of the losses as well as of the captured men can be made.

Nagasaki, June 1.—The rumor that the Gromoboi, a Russian cruiser of the Vladivostok squadron, was sunk by torpedo boats or by striking a mine has been revived here, notwithstanding the denials from St. Petersburg. It is also reported that the Rossia, which was with the Gromoboi, has suffered the same fate.

Tokio, June 1.—The wound in the head sustained by Admiral Rojestvensky is a slight outer fracture. His other wounds are slight.

Headquarters General Kuroki's army, Manchuria, June 1.—The news of Admiral Togo's victory has been received here and was read to the soldiers. The news was received quietly and without demonstration.

Tokio, June 1.—It is estimated that 7,000 Russians were killed or drowned during the naval battle in the Korean straits.

London, June 1.—A telegram received here today from St. Petersburg, says that the protected cruiser Izumrud, which has not been accounted for since the battle, has reached Vladivostok. If the report is true, as well as the dispatches last night, this makes five vessels in all which have escaped from the Japanese. The Almaz cruiser, and the destroyer Grozny, are known to have reached Vladivostok safely. Last night it was reported that the destroyers Bravy and Terosisty had also reached the Russian port.

Washington, June 1.—A dispatch from Tokio to Minister Takahira, recapitulating the results of the battle of Tsushima, says:

"Altogether, eight battleships, three armored cruisers and three coast defense ironclads, which formed the main force of the Russian fleet, either sunk or captured, and most of second class cruisers and other subsidiary vessels were destroyed, so that the whole Russian fleet was practically annihilated."

Washington, D. C., June 1.—The State Department this morning received the following dispatch from Minister Griscom at Tokio; "It is officially announced here that Admiral Volkersham was killed and not captured as reported in my telegram of May 30."

Minister Griscom at Tokio reports to the State Department as follows: "It is stated in official reports that in addition to the main fighting force most of the 2nd class Russian cruisers and subsiding vessels were destroyed, so that the whole Russian fleet was practically annihilated. The Russian cruisers Aurora and Almaz probably sunk. Attention is called to the fact that the Japanese torpedo operations were highly successful and that a majority of the large Russian vessels were sunk as a result of them. During the progress of the battle there was considerable mist and fog which presented a comprehensive report. The Almaz, referred to in Minister Griscom's dispatch is reported by the Russians to have arrived at Vladivostok.

No Prospects of Peace.

St. Petersburg, June 1.—The Novoe Vremya, which is regarded as the public mouthpiece of the government, today contains a strong editorial article in favor of the continuance of the war. Yesterday when the attitude of the government on the question of peace was not known, the paper was silent and its utterances today, therefore, are regarded as significant. The public generally is indignant at the suggestion that the war is to go on. Many officials have refused to keep up their subscription to the fleet as a mark of their disapproval. Nevertheless early peace negotiations are not regarded as likely to come. The opinion prevails that the government is determined to await the outcome of the battle which is expected to begin soon. The report that a revolt has occurred in the army is not true. Advices received here from Berlin say that Kaiser Wilhelm yesterday forwarded an urgent dispatch to the Czar urging the emperor to make peace with Japan. The message was followed by a long autograph letter from the German ruler to the same effect pointing out why Russia should give up the present struggle.

Washington, June 1.—Japanese Minister Takahira had a brief talk with the President today. On leaving the White House he said: "All this peace talk is more gossip. It is too early yet to talk peace. Russia must have time to think it over. When she has done so, then there may be some ground for peace talk. Now there is none."

Oyama to Renew Fighting.

London, June 1.—The destruction of the Russian fleet in Corean straits apparently is to be followed at once by a land attack on the Russian army in Manchuria. It has been believed for some time that Field Marshal Oyama has only been awaiting the outcome of the naval battle, which might have affected his position considerably, to begin a general attack on General Linevitch's position. Now that he is assured that his communications cannot be interrupted, there is nothing to prevent Oyama from renewing the fight which has lagged since Mukden.

The correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph Company, at St. Petersburg, wires the information that the movement against Linevitch has already commenced. Information to this effect is contained in a private dispatch to the army staff according to the correspondent and it is that a general engagement will be in progress in the near future.

The Attempted Assassination of Alfonso.

Paris, June 1.—The attempted assassination of King Alfonso in this city last night has naturally caused considerable excitement. It is known that a number of bombs have been brought to Paris, recently, from Spain. The police have seized some of these engines of destruction within the last few days, but three have been unaccounted for, according to the information of the police as to the number in existence, on yesterday. One of these was used last night. A second was found in the street last night shortly after the outrage. It had failed to explode because of an error in its construction. The third still remains in the hands of the terrorists and it is regarded as a constant menace as, until it is found, the anarachists have the weapon with which to make another attempt on the king's life. A significant incident was being recalled today in connection with the bomb throwing. On the day Alfonso arrived in Paris the walls in the poorer quarters of Paris were covered with placards, saying: "Comrades, avoid the king's passage, there is danger." Several arrests have been made. An editor of one of the Paris papers is among those taken into custody. It is said that the principal plotter is a Spaniard and that five men are implicated in the affair.

The Lewis-Clark Exposition.

Portland, Oregon, June 1.—Vice President Charles W. Fairbanks, personal representative of President Roosevelt, was orator of the day at the opening of the Lewis-Clark Exposition and received an enthusiastic greeting as he began his address. The speaker dwelt upon the rapid settlement and development of the northwest, and the attention it is attracting throughout the world, and paid tribute to the energy and perseverance of its pioneers and early settlers, and congratulated the people of Oregon upon the successful consummation of an exposition which is attracting attention and fixing the eyes of the world upon the land where rolls the Oregon. The programme consisted of music, prayer by Bishop Moore, of the M. E. Church; addresses by F. W. Goode, president of the exposition; Gov. Chamberlain, of Oregon; Jefferson Myers, Senator C. D. Clark, Congressman J. A. Tawney, Speaker Cannon and others. President Roosevelt touched the golden key at the White House in Washington transmitting the electrical energy which rang the chimes in the United States government building and started the machinery of the exposition. President Goode then declared the exposition formally opened to the world.

The Teamsters' Strike.

Chicago, June 1.—Action calculated to bring a quick end to the teamsters' strike was taken at a meeting of the Chicago Team Owners Association Wednesday night when a new committee was appointed to demand of the teamsters that the right of the team owners to make deliveries to strike bound firms be submitted at once to arbitration. Should the drivers refuse to agree to this proposition, a meeting of the team owners will be called, it is understood, and a vote taken on the question of making deliveries to strike-bound firms. Should an affirmative vote be taken the main support of the teamsters would be taken away and more than 9,000 drivers added to the idle army that has been created since the strike was called April 6.

The Ocean Yacht Race.

Lizard, Eng., June 1.—When the bark Apache belonging to Edward Randolph, of New York, sweeps over the line the great ocean yacht race from Sandy Hook to the Lizard, for the Kaiser's cup, will be over. The tenth yacht to finish was Robert E. Tod's Thistle, which sailed over the line at 12:44 this afternoon. The Apache alone is unsighted. The following is the order of the finish of the yachts: Atlantic, Hamburg, Valhalla, Endymion, Hildegarde, Sunbeam, Fleur de Lys, Ailsa, Utowana, Thistle and Apache, the latter not having finished.

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Eng., June 1. The Endymion, Valhalla and Hildegarde, three of the contestants in the race for the Kaiser's cup, have arrived here.

Captain Assassinated.

Vienna, June 1.—A Polish newspaper published here says that Captain Ronski, commander of the gendarmerie force at Czenstochav, Poland, has been assassinated. Several shots were fired at the officer, inflicting mortal wounds. The assassin escaped.

New York Stock Market.

New York, June 1. 11 a. m.—There has been an increase of reactionary tendency of the stock market in the last half hour or so. The reaction in the railroad list was most pronounced in Union Pacific, Southern Pacific and St. Paul. Much of the selling, however, was normal profit taking, which did not meet with much resistance, until prices had been lower a point or more. When this level was reached, buying orders, appeared in sufficent volume to steady prices and check any further important recession. The stock market at noon is dull and heavy.

Mr. Treat will summon to his assistance his two former deputies in Richmond, Mr. M. J. Enright, of Goochland county, who has continued during the brief interval that Mr. Stuart has been marshal, and Mr. Samuel Bendit, of Richmond, who retired from the office several months ago.

Mr. Treat has removed his office back to Richmond.

Mr. Stuart, the retiring marshal, resumed the duties of collector of the port of Newport News, to which he was appointed when Mr. Treat was reappointed marshal.

THREW BOMB AT KING.

An attempt to assassinate King Alfonso was made at midnight last night in Paris. As his majesty drove with Presideni Loubet from a gala performance at the Grand Opera House, a bomb thrown by an anarchist exploded with deadly effect near the royal carriage. As if by a miracle both the King and President escaped uninjured, but fragments of the missile seriously injured five persons, killed or maimed a number of cavalry horses forming the escort, and knocked out a child's eye.

Intense excitement followed the incident. The King and President retained their presence of mind, his majesty sending back a member of his suite to make inquiry as to the condition of the wounded. The person who is believed to have thrown the bomb has been arrested, with two others who are thought to have been implicated in the plot.

As the King, accompanied by President Loubet, drove away from the opera an anarchist threw a bomb in the direction of the royal carriage. The projectile struck a soldier belonging to the cuirassier escort on the shoulder and then fell to the ground and exploded without injuring his majesty or the President, who continued their drive to the Palais d'Orsay. Several soldiers of the escort were thrown from their horses and injured, while fragments of the bomb struck a number of persons in the street.

King Alfonso and President Loubet had been cheered along the entire route to the opera by enthusiastic crowds, the young monarch having completely gained the hearts of Parisians since his arrival in the French capital.

Secretary Bonaparte.

Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte, of Baltimore, has been selected by the President to succeed Paul Morton as Secretary of the Navy. The President made this announcement at the White House late yesterday afternoon. It developed that the portfolio of Secretary of the Navy was offered to Mr. Bonaparte several weeks ago, when Mr. Morton first expressed an intention to retire from public life at the end of June.

The President also authorized the statement that no other change in the personnel of the Cabinet would take place in the near future. Secretary Shaw has indicated his intention of retiring from the Cabinet probably next February. Rumors of the retirement of Attorney-General Moody have been published, but it is understood to be his intention now to continue in the Cabinet for a year and a half and perhaps longer.

Mr. Bonaparte is the fourth man to be appointed to the place by Mr. Roosevelt, his predecessors being Mr. Long, who had held the place under Mr. McKinley; Mr. Moody, who resigned to become Attorney General, and Mr. Morton, who now leaves to enter business in New York

Charles Joseph Bonaparte is a direct descendant of the famous Napoleon, being a grandson of Jerome Bonaparte, the one-time King of Westphalia, who, while staying in the United States, married Miss Eliza Patterson, one of the most famous beauties of Baltimore. Charles Joseph Bonaparte was born June 9, 1851. He has belonged to nearly every political party that has existed since his manhood. During the war in the Philippines he was one of the ardent opponents of the imperialistic policy, but when the war was finally ended he firmly declined the proffered office of vice-president of the Anti-Imperialistic League, because he believed it to be the duty of every citizen, alter the Philippines had been acquired, to aid in putting down the insurrection there.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Thieves last night also broke into the house of Court Crier Hayes, in New Baunswick, N. J., stealing $20 cash and silverware. They also robbed the house next door, occupied by Robert McElhaney, getting $20 in cash and a lot of silverware, mostly wedding gifts.

As the result of swallowing a live rat while eating oats out of his trough, the noted trotting horse Corintho, died at Lexington, Ky., today in great agony. It was found that the wind pipe of the horse had been lacerated by the rat in its effort to gnaw its way out of the throat.

A gang of thieves who have been operating in that community for some time, broke into the postoffice at Milltown, N. J., last night stealing $50 worth of stamps and $20 in cash. The thieves fed two watch dogs with meat and then got in through a side window. They found the safe unlocked.

John A. Gilmore, U. S. inspector of army goods, veteran of the civil war, an Elk, prominent clubman of Philadelphia and formerly in the legislature of Pennsylvania, was found dead in bed at Hotel Dewitt, at Webster, Mass., yesterday. Apoplexy caused his death. He was about 68 years of age.

Letter to the Paff Shoe Co.,

Alexandria, Va.

Dear Sirs: It's an old saying: the best advertisement is a pleased customer.

It happens to us continually in this way: A man buys Devoe for his house—he has painted it once in three years for a dog's-age, and thinks he knows what he wants—buys 30 gallons, and has 10 left.

He sees right off that 20 Devoe is as much as 30 of anything else. He likes that; it comes quick; it is a surprise; and he tells of it. The best advertisement is a pleased customer.

Three years roll round. There isn't a sign that his house needs paint; he don't paint it. Next year he don't paint it. This comes slow; it is a surprise; but he has got used to it. Still the best advertisement is a pleased customer. Yours truly,

F W DEVOE & CO

Whooping Cough in Jamaica.

Mr. J. Riley Bennett, a chemist of Brown's Town, Jamaica, West India Islands, writes: "I cannot speak too highly of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It has proved itself to be the best remedy for whooping cough, which is prevalent on this end of the globe. It has never failed to relieve in any case where I have recommended it, and grateful mothers, after using it, are daily thanking me for advising them." This remedy is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair and warmer tonight and Friday; variable winds.

The G. F. & O. D. Railway.

It is announced that at the last meeting of the board of directors of the Great Falls and Old Dominion Railway Company, John Leetch was elected president, to succeed R. D. Weaver, who has held that office since the organization of the company. Mr. Weaver's stock has been bought by John R. McLearn, who was already largely interested in the road. It was further announced that a contract for the completion of the road, which has been under course of construction for the past eight or ten months, has been let to the George Westinghouse Company. The contract calls not only for the completion of the road but also for the equipment and erection of the powerhouse at Rosslyn. The work is to be finished by the first of next September. The road is to be doubled tracked and finished in the most up-to-date manner. Traversing the heights along the Virginia side of the Potomac beautiful views can be had of Washington and the surrounding country from an elevation of 400 to 500 feet. Those who are familiar with this section predict that the completion of the road will attract a great number of people there.

Change of Beats.

The beats of all the members of the police force were changed this morning. Officer Gill has been placed in the station house in place of Officer Bettis. Previous to the change the policemen were lined up before Chief Webster and Lieutenant Smith when the superior officers gave positive instructions concerning what was expected of them by the community and what is required of them by officials. The members of the force had their attention directed to certain points in the city where disorderly gatherings disturbed the peace, especially at nights, and where property had suffered by reason of dereliction of duty on the part of policemen. The latter were directed to make examples of some of the offenders. The members signified their intention of taking drastic measures against those who have long been subjects of complaint and endeavor to remove the odium long resting upon certain neighborhoods by reason of disorderly gatherings of youths and young men, generally after dark.

Fireman Killed.

Joseph Briscoe, colored, aged forty-five years, a fireman on the steamer Charles Macalester, was accidentally killed aboard the steamer in Washington about 9 o'clock yesterday morning. How the man met his death no one aboard the steamer seems to know, but it is supposed he was struck by the heavy crank that turns the paddle wheels. It is customary aboard steamers about to start on their routes for the engineers to work the engines for a few minutes in order to clear the cylinders of water. This was done on the Macalester yesterday morning, and shortly after the engine was stopped the man was found badly crushed in the crank room and died within a few minutes after being found.

Broke Up in a Row.

The cries of "murder" and "police" heard in the northeastern part of the city Tuesday night, it seems, emanated from a colored woman at whose house a fight was in progress between several colored men, members of a symposium who had been engaged in the accumulation of a fund from which it was purposed to properly observe next Christmas. It was said that one of the members who carried the bag had appropriated the contents. The club had met at the woman's house and broke up in a row.

Lower Fares to Mount Vernon.

As the result of an agreement between the regents of the Mount Vernon Association and the Marshall Hall Steamboat Company there has been a reduction in the rates between Washington and Mount Vernon, and the steamboat service, which threatened to be discontinued, will be carried on as before. By the new arrangement the round-trip fare to Mount Vernon has been reduced from 75 to 50 cents, and the entrance fee to the grounds will be 25 cents.

Funerals.

The funeral of the late Chas. W. Myers, who died at his home, Springfield Farm, near Bailey's Cross Roads, Tuesday evening, took place at Falls Church this afternoon.

The funeral of the late Annie S. Catts, widow of John Catts, who died in Washington Tuesday morning, took place in the latter city today. The remains were subsequently brought to this city and interred in St. Paul's cemetery.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

David Brown, arrested by Officer Roberts for being drunk in the street, was dismissed.

William Anderson, colored, arrested by Officer Gill for disorderly conduct, forfeited $5 collateral for failing to appear.

Memorial Services.

James W. Jackson Council, Junior Order of Mechanics, will hold memorial services in their hall tonight. These services will be in respect to the memory of deceased members. A part of the ritual of the order has been prepared for such occasions, and this will be supplemented by other features interesting and impressive. A large attendance is expected.

Commencement Exercises.

The commencement exercises of St. Mary's Academy will take place in the Opera House on Wednesday, June 14, at 3:30 o'clock. A programme varied and interesting will be presented by the pupils on the occasion. A lawn fete for the benefit of the academy will be opened on the academy grounds at the same time and be continued to the end of the week.

There will be a game of baseball at the old fair grounds Friday evening at 5:30 o'clock between the Old Dominions and the Orientals.

Suits.

A suit was entered in the Corporation Court today by Messrs. Norton and Boothe in the case of W. J. Hancock vs. Anna M. H. Smith for the sale of the old Braddock House property in this city. The City Council is made a party to the suit because that body recently passed an order requiring that the old property be repaired and put in a safe and sanitary condition.

In the case of Catharine Makely vs. the Southern Railway Company Judge Nicol of the Circuit Court for the city has issued a rule, returnable at Manassas on June 10, to show cause why an injunction should not be awarded against the railway company as prayed for by the complainant. Mrs. Makely complains that her property, at the corner of Henry and Wilkes streets, has been greatly damaged by the congregating of locomotives in that locality and by the smoke and soot from locomotives and the railway shops and roundhouse entering her residence.

Personal.

Miss Bessie Jones has returned from a delightful visit to friends in Norfolk and Portsmouth.

Capt. K Kemper today received official notification from the State Board of Education of his reappointment as superintendent of schools for Alexandria city for a term of four years.

Mr. F. F. Marbury has been reappointed by Gov. Montague a notary public for this city.

Miss Ethel King, of Alexandria, is the guest of Miss Jessie Divine, in town, this week.—[Leesburg Mirror.

Three Fingers Cut Off.

Leo Davis, a young man employed at the Alexandria Iron Works on south Royal street, had three fingers of his right hand cut off yesterday afternoon by getting them caught in wire which was being handled by machinery.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Blue June.

The schooner Flying Cloud, loaded with lumber by H. K. Field & Co., has sailed for Mount Holly.

Blackberries were selling in this city today at 15 cents a box, while strawberries sold for four cents upward.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Preston Abell and Cora E. Payne, both of Loudoun county.

Today being Ascension Day services appropriate to the occasion were held at St. Mary's and St. Paul's churches in this city.

A crate of eggs fell from an Armour Company's wagon at the electric railway station, corner of Prince and Royal streets, this morning, and most of the eggs were broken.

The official figures show that Mr. Edgar Padgett, candidate for Magistrate in the Third ward last Monday, received 232 votes, instead of 132 as stated. He had no opposition.

The regular weekly prayer meeting of the Allison W. C. T. U. will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Children's Home on Duke street. The meeting will be led by Rev. Mr. Carpenter, rector of Grace Episcopal Church.

There were copious rains late yesterday afternoon, accompanied by some thunder and lightning. The temperature remained cool throughout the night and conditions were unchanged this morning. Fair weather, however, followed later.

Mr. Robert Travers will have trout, tailors, butterfish and sturgeon in market tomorrow.

HICKS FOR JUNE.

First storm period is central on the 3rd, 4th and 5th.

On and touching the 3rd look for change to warmer, rain and thunder storms, beginning in the west, and passing eastward across the country.

The second period covers the 8th to 12th. From the 10th to the 15th of June is an annual period of electric perturbation, caused by the approximate turning of the earth's north pole to the plane of the sun's equator.

We predict that many electrical storms and heavy rainfalls will appear at this time, but that they will cover comparatively narrow localities, leaving wide areas of the country only moderate results.

It is proper to say that the prevailing weather conditions during this period will indicate the character of storms and weather that may be expected until after the middle of July.

The third period is central on the 14th to 17th. The electrical strain earth's summer solstice will be felt in frequent and general displays of lightning, all through this part of June.

The fourth period is central on the 21st, the same date being the central day of earth's summer solstice period.

The fifth storm period—reactionary, is on the 26th, 27th and 28. The June solstice, and the Mars period nearing its center will be the chief disturbers at this time.

There will be thunder and rain storms on and touching the 26th, 27th and 28th, but wide districts of comparative, if not severe, dryness will lie in many parts of the country, notably in northern, southern and western extremes.

Often as we have given this bit of admonition, we repeat it again, do not take shelter under trees in a thunder storm, especially in June. The danger from lightning is much greater, and many lives are thus destroyed every year during this month.

Cuban Diarrhoea.

U. S. soldiers who served in Cuba during the Spanish war know what this disease is, and that ordinary remedies have little more effect than so much water. Cuban diarrhoea is almost as severe and dangerous as a mild attack of cholera. There is one remedy, however, that can always be depended upon as will be seen by the following certificate from Mrs. Minnie Jacobs of Houston, Texas: "I hereby certify Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy cured my husband of a severe attack of Cuban diarrhoea, which he brought home from Cuba. We had several doctors but they did him no good. One bottle of this remedy cured him, as our neighbors will testify. I than God for so valuable a medicine." For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

YARMOUTH BLOATERS, CODFISH and SCOTCH HERRING for sale by J. C. MILBURN.

THE CORPORATION COMMISSION TROUBLE.

Another step in the Corporation Commission mixup, which has aroused so much interest all over the State, was the removal yesterday of Joseph W. Newby and Arthur M. Tyler, clerk and stenographer, who are alleged to have been associated with Major A. S. Lanier, former first clerk to the commission in the conduct of the Virginia Corporation Company, the concern which it is claimed was at the bottom of all the trouble. Major Lanier, having declined to reign, was removed late on Tuesday by the commission, as stated in yesterday's Gazette.

Major Lanier says in his statement that the Virginia Corporation Company was formed by him with the hearty approval of Judge B. T. Crump, president of the Corporation Commission; that the judge took stock in it and did not inform his colleagues on the commission of the fact. The reason given for the removal of Lanier was irreconcilable differences between him and John A. Upshur, secretary to the commission. Lanier says that the real cause was jealously on the part of Upshur, many of whose powers had been conferred on him. The charges made by Upshur against Lanier have not been made public.

A suit by Lanier against Upshur for $10,000 for alleged libel was filed in Richmond yesterday afternoon in the Law and Equity Court by his attorney, William L. Royall.

Another feature of the affair was the appearance in the Richmond Police Court yesterday of Major Lanier, John B. Lighttoot, jr., and William Crump Tucker. Lightfoot and Tucker are nephews of Judge Crump. The arrest of the three was due to information received by the police that they contemplated a breach of the peace in the shape of threatened fights over the dispute. All three disclaimed any belligerent intentions. Major Lanier, addressing the court at some length, declared that the day had gone by "when men settle their differences upon the bloody field of honor." They were discharged upon their personal assurances that they had not the slightest idea of engaging in duels or otherwise breaking the peace.

"I had no fear of duels," said Chief of Detectives Tomlinson, "but of a street fight, in which the innocent bystander always suffers most."

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles, "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons Druggist.

The Salve That Penetrates.

DeWitt's Hazel Salve penetrates the pores of the skin, and by its antiseptic, rubificient and healing influence it subdues inflammation and cures Boils, Burns, Cuts, Eczems, Tetter, Ring Worm and all skin diseases. A specific for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding Piles. The original and genuine Witch Hazel Salve is made by E. C. DeWitt & Co., and sold by W. F. Creighton 401 King street, and corner Queen and Patrick street.

Carlyle, Emerson and Satan.

Carlyle and Emerson once had a passage of arms on the subject of the existence of the devil. Carlyle believed in the devil. He had a robust and defiant faith in such a personage, and we know that when Carlyle had a belief in anything it was so even if it wasn't so. The great American writer did not believe. They argued the thing for some time. "Well, come and see him for yourself," said Carlyle, and the poor poet, wondering whether the other had the devil chained up anywhere, put on his hat and went out into the London night. Carlyle took him round to various gin shops in Seven Dials, to certain dens of infamy and low class music halls. "Do you believe in the devil now?" said Carlyle. Apparently Emerson did not. They finished up by going to the Distinguished Strangers' gallery of the house of commons. It was a wild night of impassioned speeches, sawing of arms and thumping of fists. Emerson had never seen anything like it and said so, and Carlyle nudged his elbow into Emerson's ribs and whispered gravely, "Do you believe in a devil now?"

Diplomatic Gun Play.

The Coffeyville (Kan.) Journal tells a story of the quick wit of a western gun artist: Bob Chestnut had an altercation with an Irishman in a western cattle camp many years ago. The Irishman was a bully and a bad man. While Chestnut always wore a brace of six shooters in his belt, he also carried a sudden emergency Derringer in his outside coat pocket. The Irishman had an eleven inch Colt already in his hand. Bob thrust his hand in his pocket for his Derringer, but the weapon had slipped down in a hole in the lining. His hand coming in contact with his pipe, he quickly drew it out and placed it in his mouth. The Irishman lowered his gun, which he had elevated when Bob thrust his hand into his pocket. Bob reached for his pocket again, presumably for his tobacco. Fumbling around, he secured the Derringer, brought it into play like a flash of lightning, and they carried the Irishman away.

As to Ladies and Gentlemen.

"It's a fine thing to be a lady or a gentleman," said the bookkeeper.

"What's your idea of a gentleman?" inquired the stenographer.

"A man that's clean inside and out; who neither looks up to the rich nor down on the poor; who can lose without squealing and who can win without bragging; who is considerate of women, children and old people; who is too brave to lie, too generous to cheat and who takes his share of the world and lets other people have theirs."

"And what does it take to make a lady?" asked the stenographer.

"A perfect lady is a woman who can hear a choice piece of scandal about her dearest enemy and then forget it," answered the bookkeeper.

"Huh!" cried the stenographer. "That kind of a woman wouldn't be a lady, she'd be in an asylum for the dumb."—New York Journal.

Plants That Mimic Stones.

In South Africa a plant of the genus mesembryanthemum, growing on stony ground, so closely resembles a pebble that it has been picked up in mistake for a stone. Another species of the same plant, growing on the hills around the Karru, produces two leaves about as large as ducks' eggs, having a surface resembling weathered stone of a brownish gray color tinged with green. These plants look like stones, but for a short time they put forth bright yellow flowers. Still another species of the same plant resembles the quartz pebbles among which it grows.—Youth's Companion.

Clean Monday.

We have in Great Britain our Good Friday, but Clean Monday is peculiarly a Grecian institution. It is the day that ushers in the great Lenten fast at Athens, and the people go holiday making to eat Lenten fare on the hills around the city, while the shepherds and country people dance the ancient Greek dances in the old temples. This practice is termed "cutting the nose of Lent," and obviously Clean Monday is parallel to our Shrove Tuesday and its pancakes.—London Telegraph.

Torture of a Preacher.

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church, of Hoopersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased conditions of Throat and Lungs. At E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists; price 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Found a Cure for Dyspepsia.

Mrs. S. Lindsay, of Fort William, Ontario, Canada, who was suffering quite a number of years from dyspepsia and great pains in the stomach, was advised by her druggist to take Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. She did so and says, "I find that they have done me a great deal of good. I have never had any suffering since I began using them." If troubled with dyspepsia or indigestion why not take these Tablets, get well and stay well? For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
